The Glendale Tuesday Afternoon club is rejoicing in the splendid personnel of officers elected at the annual business meeting of the club held Tuesday in Masonic Temple. Jones accompanied Mrs. Arnold on the piano. Miss Doris Packer, the talented daughter of the club treasurer, read exceedingly well, Lady Wentworth and, as an encore, Uncle Abe and Aunt Maria.

Reports of the officers, chairmen of committees and the curators of sections were the order of the day. Through lack of time, however, a limited number of reports were given; the remainder will be heard before the close of the club year. Interesting and instructive reports were given by the following:

TRIPLE CELEBRATION

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Goss entertained Tuesday evening, May 22, at a triple celebration. The event was to honor the birthdays of Dr. A. L. Bryant, Mr. R. D. Goss and the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Burket. About fifteen relatives joined in the celebration. In keeping with the times, the decorations were in the national colors, the beautifully appointed table being centered with a bouquet of red and white sweet peas and blue cornflower, while the favors were in the same colors. The birthday cake with lighted candles was of course a prominent feature of the dinner. A social evening of reminiscences and music followed. Those present were the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Burket, Dana Burket, Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Bryant, Dean, Hugh and Albert Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Goss, William, Philip and little Miss Edith Goss.

REV. NORTON DEPARTMENT OFFICER

Rev. C. R. Norton, 373 West Third street, was highly honored last week at the department encampment at Long Beach by his Grand Army friends, when he was elected chaplain of the department of California and Nevada. Rev. Norton for some time has been chaplain of the Southern California Veterans' association and of N. P. Banks Post, No. 170. He must perform his duties very satisfactorily to his comrades to be thus honored.

COLUMBUS AVE. P.-T. A.

Columbus avenue P.-T. A. will hold its last meeting of the year Thursday at 3 p. m. A report of the year's work will be given by each chairman and election of officers for the new year will be held. CHURCH IS ABSENT

GLENDALE SECRETARY VISITS PREPAREDNESS TRAIN AT WHITTIER

Walt. Le Noir Church, Secretary of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, with headquarters at 1010 West Broadway, is absent from Glendale, being in attendance at the Preparedness Train celebration in Whittier.

Mr. Church left our city this morning on the 6:45 Pacific Electric car and will not return until this evening, so in his absence the editor of the Evening News will take opportunity to explain that this gentleman devotes all of his time to the interests of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, and since taking charge of the work in March he has been the means of gaining much favorable publicity for Glendale. Mr. Church's presence in Whittier to-day will be a further means of connecting Glendale up with live wire men of Southern California. He took with him packages of Glendale boosting literature, and he will see that it is placed where it will do the most good.

Then, too, Church is a mixer. Before leaving Whittier this evening it is safe to say that all the University men board the Preparedness Train who were not already acquainted with Walt. Le Noir Church as the secretary of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, will know him before the close of the day, and very likely they will be singing his popular song, Plant, Plant, Plant.

In the opinion of the Evening News, Glendale is indeed fortunate in securing such an able man to serve as the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

If any citizen of Glendale has a suggestion to make as to what will be for the betterment of the Glendale community, call on Walt. Le Noir Church at the Chamber of Commerce rooms, 1010 West Broadway, and a hearty welcome will be extended to the one calling.

FAITHFULNESS REWARDED

The many friends of Miss Emma Adams, who will soon become the bride of Mr. H. H. Laubach of Los Angeles, have greatly enjoyed expressing their esteem for her sterling character and lovable disposition and her faithfulness to duty, in giving her pleasant showers, enjoyable tea parties and personal calls at her home, 1450 Ivy street.

Last Sunday morning, the men of the First Congregational Church, of which Miss Adams has been the very efficient treasurer, expressed their appreciation in a written letter read before the congregation and the presentation to her of a substantial purse, Mr. E. D. Yard having the honor of being the spokesman for the men.

Miss Adams expressed her great surprise and delight in a short response. Faithfulness to duty and a fine spirit of Christian nobleness always finds a reward in this world as well as in the world to come.

PATRIOTIC LUNCHEON

Mrs. Jesse Joseph, 1431 West First street, entertained with a luncheon on Monday, honoring Mrs. Wheeler of Kenosha, Wis., who has been a guest of Mrs. H. R. Boyer. The rooms and table decorations were in the national colors. The Victrola and music by Mrs. Boyer helped to pass a pleasant afternoon. Covers were laid for Mrs. Wheeler, Miss Elizabeth Wheeler, Mrs. H. R. Boyer, Mrs. F. R. Pitner, Mrs. V. M. Tressler, Mrs. F. A. Conrad.

Don't forget the Red Cross Sewing Committee meeting at the Christian Church bungalow, Thursday, from 10 to 4 o'clock.

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The government plans to soon make a formal statement in regard to its attitude toward the Russian Soldiers' and Workmen's slogan, "No annexation, no indemnity." Though it has not been announced it is believed this statement will agree with that of the French premier who said it is necessary to combat dangerous sophisms which seek to treat the restoration of "our lost provinces" as being a question of annexation and which confuse the question of indemnities for ravages in the invaded provinces.

NATIONAL WOMEN'S ORGANIZATIONS DEMAND THAT GOVERNMENT ORGANIZE NEW DEPARTMENT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

NEW YORK, May 23.—Women's organizations continue to urge that it is the duty of the government to organize a department to house, feed and care for war mothers. The Woman's National Service League advises that the Red Cross under federal control can do this, while the National Suffrage association favors the development of their organization in every city and town throughout the country. Both organizations are insisting that there must be no hint of charity connected with this work.

TIMELY TOPICS

THEMES OF BIBLE CONFERENCE SPEAKERS RELATE TO PRESENT CONDITIONS

The Glendale and San Fernando Valley second annual Bible conference which meets this week at the Presbyterian Church, is setting before the public a most interesting list of subjects, especially as many of them relate to present world conditions. Perhaps the most significant is the subject to be presented next Sabbath afternoon at 2:30, by Dr. Campbell Coyle, pastor of the Highland Park Presbyterian Church, "The present world war in the light of prophecy." None can afford to miss hearing this timely address by a man who has made a thorough study of the question.

Of great importance to the student of history, is the Jewish question. There is at least one man in Los Angeles who is thoroughly familiar with this subject in all its bearings, and that man is Dr. F. W. Farr of the Calvary Baptist Church. He will speak on Friday evening, 7:45, on "Past, Present and Future of the Jews, as related to Prophecy." Those who are studying the signs of the times will plan to hear this message.

Rev. W. E. Blackstone, whose book, "Jesus is coming," which has been translated into twenty-five different languages, and the numerous editions now total over 350,000 copies, will preach the conference sermon on Sabbath morning, 11 o'clock. Subject: "The Imminent Return of the Lord."

Dr. R. A. Torrey will open the conference on Thursday evening with the subject: "The burning question of the day: Is Jesus coming again?" Dr. Kellogg of Occidental College will speak on "What manner of persons ought we to be?" Rev. Geo. W. Davis has sent in his subject as "Christ filling the universe." Dr. Farr's second address will be, "Ten reasons for loving the second Advent." Rev. J. H. Hunter will give a specially prepared address on "Getting together." Dr. Pratt, who for two years has taught "The People's Bible Class," is announced to speak on "The person and work of the Holy Spirit."

Dr. Wm. Evans of the Bible Institute will close the conference on Sunday evening. The topic is not announced. Suffice it to say that Dr. Evans always presents helpful and important Bible truths, in a most telling and practical manner. There is no greater Bible teacher than he.

The general public is most cordially invited to all sessions of the Bible Conference, May 24-27.

ATTEND PRESS CLUB BANQUET

Mrs. Mabel Franklin Ocker and sister, Miss Veda Franklin, of 200 South Central avenue attended the banquet given by the Southern California Woman's Press Club at Christopher's, Tuesday evening, and report a most enjoyable program. Richard Walton Tully, dramatist, and author of the Bird of Paradise, Omar the Tentmaker and The Flame, told of the music of Hawaii. His talk was illustrated by three native Hawaiians, who played on the different instruments, both primitive and modern. Wadsworth Harris, the actor and former associate of Modjeska, gave the speech of Cardinal Woolsey in Henry VIII, in which he formerly appeared with Modjeska, and gave personal reminiscences of his association with the famous actress. Alfred Kreymborg, free verse writer and author of Mushrooms, was another interesting speaker. Mr. Murkuri, Hindu poet and philosopher, spoke beautifully of the life and poetry of India and commended Mr. Kreymborg's work. Senator Brown of Los Angeles presented his theory of a one-house legislature and pointed out the advantages of such an arrangement. The entire program was novel and unusually interesting.

PREPAREDNESS NOVELTY

The Glendale Garden Society has arranged a novel and most attractive booth for Saturday, the 26th of May. The booth will be stationed close to the Preparedness Train and right in the thick of the traffic. A miniature street car has been kindly loaned for the occasion. The ladies in charge will wear gardening costumes and sunbonnets. Ladies in charge of this Soldier of the Soil enterprise are Mrs. R. Culp, Mrs. Frank Thomas, Mrs. Francis Henry, Mrs. H. C. Ackley, Mrs. G. W. Henderson, Mrs. James Pearson, Mrs. Ella Richardson, Mrs. R. McQuivy, Mrs. Nanno Woods and others.

WEATHER FORECAST—Cloudy to-night and Thursday. Probably showers. Southwesterly winds.

STUDEBAKER OPENING

PACKER & ROMAN TO HOLD OPEN HOUSE THURSDAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

The new brick building, northwest corner of Brand boulevard and Colorado street, erected for the Studebaker agency by R. L. Phister, is all complete, and Messrs. Packer & Roman will hold their opening reception Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. Packer & Roman took the agency for the Studebaker about three months ago and as there was no building available that suited their purpose they made their headquarters temporarily at Third and Maryland until a building could be completed for them. The new building was designed for them by Alfred F. Priest of North Glendale and is architecturally a handsome edifice in addition to being especially adapted for the purpose for which it is to be used.

The building is of brick and faces on Brand boulevard. Harry E. Betz, who has built many of the brick buildings in Glendale and vicinity, had the contract, in company with Ed Daniels. The front part will be used as a display room and it is especially well lighted and the walls are simply but artistically finished in a soft gray with panel effect. In one corner is a ladies' rest room, comfortably arranged, with beautiful wicker furniture and Victrola, and in the opposite corner is the business office. The display room is 50x50 feet and in the rear of this is a spacious stock room. The mechanical department in the rear of the building is splendidly equipped and is in charge of L. G. Bramble, well known for his ability along that line. This room is 50x90 feet, is well lighted and in addition to taking care of the repair work there is ample space for extra stock cars. The gasoline station on the south of the building is conveniently located.

In the display room are shown the very latest in Studebakers, including four and six cylinder touring cars and a three passenger roadster. These cars contain many features that are very attractive, including reversible front seat, so the passenger may face either the front or the rear seats; detachable front seats, making it possible to transform the car into a bed, and other equally good points. There is also shown a complete camping outfit, which may be used in connection with a Studebaker touring car.

What the uninitiated like about the Studebaker are the artistic appearance and the graceful lines of the car. But what attracted Messrs. Packer & Roman was the great power of the Studebaker motor in ratio to the low consumption of gasoline. Simplicity, accessibility and power in the engine are the features that attracted these men when they were selecting a car.

Messrs. Packer & Roman will be glad to welcome their friends and show the new quarters and the good points of the Studebaker on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

WEST GLENDALE UNION

The West Glendale W. C. T. U. held one of the most interesting meetings of the season Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Hollingsworth, 1717 Vine street. Mrs. Greenwalt, prominent member of the Glendale City Union and other clubs, kindly consented to be present and conduct the parliamentary practice. Mrs. Greenwalt's methods of conducting the drill was most happy, giving occasion for much merriment and at the same time driving home many needed lessons. A rising vote of thanks was given her. Mrs. Hyatt, Mrs. Florence Smith and Mrs. E. M. Cook were elected delegates to the state convention to be held in Los Angeles this week.

After adjournment the hostess served light refreshments and the company was taken to the garden, where Mrs. Hollingsworth is most successfully combatting the high cost of living.

CLOSING EXERCISES

To-morrow (Thursday) evening will witness the closing exercises of the Adventist Church Intermediate school. They will be held in the audience room of the Intermediate school, Third street, corner of Jackson, and commence at 7:45. Special effort has been taken by both teachers and scholars to make a program which will be interesting and instructive. Admission is free to all and the Board of Trustees invite the people of Glendale and Tropic to be present on this occasion. To-morrow evening, Third street school, 7:45.

GLENDALE, CALIFORNIA, WEDNESDAY, MAY 23, 1917

SLOW TO OBEY SUGGESTIONS

It is surprising to notice how slow some people are to heed a timely suggestion. Early last winter Mr. Shinn, who had been during his lifetime an expert horticulturist, made a sightseeing trip over the various sections of the Glendale community and upon completing the inspection this very capable gentleman said through the columns of the Evening News: "The one thing that mars the appearance of Glendale more than anything else is the fact that property owners have allowed non-bearing fruit trees to remain in orchards and dooryards." In a verbal conversation with the writer, this gentleman referred to whole orchards that should be cut down. He said the stranger who passes through the city and sees these non-bearing trees must be led to believe that Glendale climate and soil are not adapted to the growth of such trees, or if the soil is adapted to the growth of the trees, the owners must be lazy and indifferent in not properly caring for them. Has the suggestion been heeded?

HOW TO SECURE HELP ON THE FARM

The practice of farmers throughout California in patronizing private employment bureaus, which charge farm workers from $1 to $6 for telling them where jobs can be found, together with the fact that railroad, construction, and lumber companies pay better wages, demand shorter work days and provide more sanitary housing conditions, is blamed by C. B. Sexton, superintendent of the State Employment Bureau system, for the present inability of farmers to secure desirable farm help, in a report on farm labor conditions submitted by him to the State Council of Defense through John P. McLaughlin, commissioner of the State Bureau of Labor Statistics.

In this report Sexton says that the farmers in various parts of the State who have reported a shortage of farm labor, have not sought the co-operation of the federal, state and municipal free employment bureaus, which do not charge a fee for bringing workers and jobs together.

In summing up the reported labor shortage and present farm conditions, Superintendent Sexton says:

"While there has been a great deal of talk about the large number of men who are wanted on farms, the many federal, state and municipal free employment bureaus in California, which do not charge any fees for bringing laborer and job together, have not been asked to supply men. As nearly as I have been able to learn, these laborers will be wanted by the farmers at some future time, rather than at the present time.

"In considering the farm laborer, it is well to bear in mind that the farmer is always in competition with the railroad, construction and lumber companies, who generally offer the same or better wages, shorter hours and take better care of their men, and who will always win out against the farmer in getting the desirable class of help until housing conditions are improved in the agricultural districts."

Apropos the practice of farmers to seek farm laborers through private employment bureaus, where they are compelled to pay a fee in order to find out where a job is located, and as is frequently the case, to pay their own railroad fare also to get to the job, Sexton says:

"If the farmers continue to place their orders for help with the private employment bureaus, the incongruity will be presented of employers clamoring that they need men and then penalizing applicants the equivalent of a day's wage or more for the privilege of going to work."

INDUSTRIAL PREPAREDNESS THEME OF EFFICIENCY SOCIETY

The human factor in industrial preparedness was the keynote of the national conference, headed by the Western Efficiency Society which convened in Chicago to-day.

The purpose of the conference is to deal with the war with Germany and with industrial preparedness following the termination of the struggle. Every phase of the industrial preparedness program is being discussed by efficiency experts, educators, representatives of labor and business men from various parts of the country.

At to-morrow's session "Labor and Industrial Preparedness" will be the topic of discussion.

Standardization, as a preparedness measure; the employment problem; education of both the workman and executive; government control as a war measure; training of the coming generation of workers and executives and "After the War—What?" are some of the big questions the conference expects to answer.

AMERICA PREPARING

One half cup of milk wasted daily by every family in the United States would involve a total waste of 912,500,000 quarts a year, the product of 400,000 cows, the Department of Agriculture estimates to-day in a bulletin urging war economy.

RUSSIAN PREMIER PREDICTS REPUBLIC OF PEACE

Predicting that a Republic of Peace will rise in Russia after the war, Premier Lvoff of the provisional government to-day sent a message to the American people, through Isaac F. Marcossin, representative of Everybody's Magazine.

"The newest of democracies greets America with peculiar fervor, because it feels that the American people can readily understand what the great Russian revolution means," said Lvoff. "Autocracy in Russia is dead forever. In its stead will soon rise a Republic of Peace."

"We wish America to realize thoroughly that there can be but one result of the great upheaval, and that result a real democracy modeled along the lines of the American republic, creating a government by and for the whole people. It will mean justice and opportunity to everybody.

"The name Russia once meant darkness and oppression. It will now mean light and freedom. The New Russia will be the frankest and most liberal of republics. In New Russia the Jew and Gentile are brothers.

"We want America to know that Russia will continue the war to a peace dictated by allied victory. The revolution, which wiped out pro-German conspiracies against national life, insures the result. Only on complete victory can our Republic of Peace be reared.

"In that struggle we are proud to have America as an ally. Russia looks to America for fresh bonds and new, lasting commercial democratic kinship."

Munitions experts attending the engineers convention at Cincinnati, Ohio, met to-day and heard an address by Major E. D. Bricker, ordnance department, Frankfort arsenal. All phases of shell manufacture were discussed. The American Society of Mechanical Engineers and the National Machine Tool Builders Association are meeting there.

Y. M. C. A. ACTIVELY AT WORK

Indications that the Y. M. C. A. campaign in California for $125,000 would be successful were contained in advices received here this week from different parts of the state showing that in many localities the amounts sought by the solicitors had been exceeded. Nearly 1,000 Y. M. C. A. members and their friends are taking part in the state-wide canvass in thirty-seven Y. M. C. A. centers as well as in the rural districts. No section of the state is being omitted in the big campaign to raise money for the Y. M. C. A. program among the soldiers in the new National Army.

The Los Angeles and San Francisco campaigns for $30,000 each began Monday morning, following meetings on Saturday at Watsonville, Hollister, Gilroy, San Jose, Palo Alto, Los Gatos, Santa Cruz, Pacific Grove, Salinas, Monterey, the towns in the Counties of Los Angeles and San Francisco and Alameda.

Governor W. D. Stephens issued this week a proclamation setting aside May 27th as Y. M. C. A. War Work Day. The endorsement of the campaign by the executive of the State resulted in renewed enthusiasm among campaign workers and the entire association movement. The proclamation of the Governor follows:

"The Young Men's Christian Associations of California have made plans for the observance of Sunday, May 27th, as a day to be devoted to preparation for service to our country. On behalf of the people of California I wish to encourage this movement and at this time to express appreciation of the commendable activities of the Young Men's Christian Association.

"Most heartily do I respond to the suggestion to make proclamation of Sunday, May 27th, as Y. M. C. A. War Work Day."

Gifts approximating more than $10,000 had been received even before the state-wide canvass began on Monday, according to announcement of the California War Work Council. Several contributions of $1,000 and half a dozen at $500 each were included in that amount.

Early in the week District Secretary Gossom reported that half the total of $6,500 asked in San Jose and Watsonville had been pledged before the opening of the campaign.

One of the record "stunts" of the campaign was the raising of $1,044 at a San Bernardino dinner of business men in the short space of twelve minutes. The Chamber of Commerce at Pomona endorsed the campaign and individual members of that body subscribed $300. At a meeting of several business men with Commanding Officers of the Army and Navy at Los Angeles, five men gave $5,000. Business and professional men all over the state are not only making large contributions but are actively engaged in soliciting funds in their communities.

WHITTIER TAKES HOLIDAY

Whittier took a holiday to-day to welcome the Interstate Preparedness train—the first train into Whittier over the newly completed Salt Lake line—which the states of Utah, Nevada and California are sending out to show their products and help instruct farmers. A flag raising, the formal welcome of the train, meetings at which food production, preparedness for war and like subjects were discussed, and a few hours of festivity made the occasion notable.

The same preparedness train will be in Glendale all day, Saturday. The event will draw to this city many thousands of people.

LAND FOR ALL MEETING

A meeting will be held next Friday evening, May 25th, at the home of Rev. N. J. Wright, 241 South Orange street, at 8 o'clock, as the opening event of the year in Glendale to free the land for the people. When last November 260,300 California voters voted to make it unprofitable to hold land out of use and to thus open it up for actual occupation and cultivation, it is obvious the campaign has got a good start.

Mrs. Lucy Durham of West Seventh street will preside and Rev. N. J. Wright and Dr. I. H. Durfee will make brief addresses. After these, Mrs. Lona Ingham Robinson will speak about the recent Atlantic City National Single Tax Convention and the new national organization then formed in the interest of freeing the land to the people now, and the work to be done here in this coming campaign. Then the meeting will be open for general discussion.

Everybody cordially invited.

Now that canned goods are going up the makers of can-openers should lose no time in following suit.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Yesterday afternoon the entire sixth period was turned over to Harold Venske, the editor of the Stylus, who used the time as a booster assembly for the publication. He first gave a short talk, telling of the numerous advantages of each department of this year's annual over that of last year, after which he introduced in turn the several departmental editors. Florence Heacock, the literary editor, was not present, so Venske took her place and awarded the prize for the best story written for the Stylus. The prize of $1.50 went to Earl Merritt, a junior. First prize for the best poem was also given out, Lillian Schick being the lucky person.

Kenneth Belden, the joke editor, then made his little "spiel," after which he gave out the first and second prize for that department to two seniors, Mildred Wight and Olin Wilson respectively. Catherine Phillips, the editor of the snapshot department, was the next speaker. Of all the things in a school annual the pictures are always what the critic first turns his attentions to, and Catherine has certainly put in enough time this year to make it a record for snapshots. "Curley" Williams was awarded first prize for this division.

The next speaker was the hustling advertising manager, Earl Brown. So far this year Earl has engaged so many advertisers for the Stylus that the management has already found it necessary to add four more pages of ads. His advertisement fees have exceeded those of last year by over $100, and in all probability he is not yet through with his campaign. Mr. Ferguson, who is the senior class teacher, then made a few remarks, urging the students that they patronize the advertisers as much as possible. Ed Seay, the senior president, followed Mr. Ferguson with a clever summing up of work done by the entire staff, and in behalf of the senior class he publicly thanked Harold Venske for his untiring efforts in making this year's Stylus the success that it will inevitably be. The remainder of the period was spent in signing up for Stylus by the students. A group of seniors canvassed the audience, and a large number of the books were ordered. The price will be 50 cents, which is 15 cents less than that of last year.

THE STYLUS PRINTING

In the school notes published above mention is made that the merchants advertising in the Stylus should receive the patronage of the pupils of the school. Would it not be a good plan for the merchants of Glendale to recommend that the Stylus be printed in territory within the school district instead of in Los Angeles? The Evening News plant is amply equipped for doing excellent work, and proved that when the Stylus of 1915 was printed by the Evening News. The Stylus of 1916 was printed in Los Angeles at a lower price than was bid by the Evening News, but the work was so inferior that members of the class and others who were interested in the school were absolutely ashamed of the class of work. Three years ago the printing was done in Los Angeles and the work at that time was very inferior. Being required to bid against incompetent workmen heretofore, the management of the Evening News did not feel justified in submitting a bid for the 1917 Stylus. The work may be first class this year, but if it is it will be different than when printed in Los Angeles in 1914 and 1916. The Evening News can not afford to do anything but first class work and therefore will not agree to bid against printers doing the poor class of work that appeared in the 1916 Stylus.

The Evening News always takes a decided stand for all Glendale community institutions, and why would it not be a good plan for the merchants to take a stand for the printing of the Stylus to be done in Glendale in 1918?

SOLOMON IN HIS GLORY

No, he never was arrayed like one of those cactus blossoms, almost a cerise color with the beautiful royal purplish tinge in the heart.

They were grown at 419 South Glendale avenue, Glendale, in the garden of Mr. G. B. Woodberry, Secretary Verdugo Water Co., Member of the Board of City Trustees and the Glendale Chamber of Commerce Executive Board. They are too generously beautiful to last long. They are worth coming to see—in the flower window of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, kept in full dress by the ladies of the Glendale Garden Society.

Just at the door, outside that window, you can see an extraordinary sample of sweet clover, 7 feet 6 inches tall.

It was grown on the place of Mr. W. J. Broad, 130 East Fifth street, Glendale.

The Glendale Chamber of Commerce has exhibited the largest carrot known, and is now exhibiting the largest lemon (actual, not figurative) and the tallest sweet clover of this winter's growth. Glendale always "goes up head." Many thanks to both gentlemen donors.

TROPICO TRUSTEES

MRS. LOGAN AND MISS HICKMAN
RESIGN FROM LIBRARY BOARD

The trustees of the City of Tropic met in regular session Tuesday evening at 7:30 at the City Hall. All members of the board present, City Treasurer Brown acting as clerk of the board. City Attorney Shaw, City Engineer Wattles and City Health Officer Mabry were also present. Ex-trustee Boyer was also present and occupied a reserved seat on the rostrum.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

A communication was received from the secretary of the State Railroad Commission, asking what action had been taken by the board in regard to the danger signals to be placed on various streets in Tropic, as had been recommended in a former letter. A majority of the Trustees seemed to think that adequate signs were already in position and ordered the communication placed on file.

A communication was read from the Chamber of Commerce of Glendale extending an invitation to the city officials and the people of Tropic in general to visit Glendale on Saturday, May 26th, when the National Preparedness Train will be in Glendale for a full day's instruction.

A communication was received from Miss Cora Hickman tendering her resignation as a member of the board of trustees of the Tropic City Library. On motion of Trustee Henry the resignation of Miss Hickman was accepted.

A communication was received from Mrs. John A. Logan, asking the board to accept her resignation as a member of the board of trustees of the Tropic Public Library. Same was accepted by the board.

A communication was received from the remaining members of the Library Board recommending the appointment of Miss Gertrude Gibbs as a member of the Library Board. Ordered placed on file.

City Engineer Wattles submitted a report of the probable cost of repairing certain streets in the city, which had been referred to him at last meeting. Mr. Wattles recommended that certain streets be improved in one of two ways: either to plow and resurface said streets at a cost of approximately $18,334, or put in a good, substantial macadam base, which would cost approximately $30,190. No action was taken on the report excepting to place it on file.

City Attorney Shaw reported an ordinance establishing a city pound for the handling of live stock found running at large. The ordinance was referred to the City Marshal for recommendations as to the amount of fees, etc., to be collected.

Mr. Augustus made application to keep a pig on the rear of his lot on Tropic avenue. Referred to Health Officer Mabry, who reported that there was an ordinance prohibiting the keeping of hogs within 300 feet of any residence, which would eliminate the case in question.

Treasurer Brown reported that he had been informed by Arthur Campbell, Superintendent of the Water Co., that the company would furnish water from the fire hydrants for irrigation purposes to those who might apply, and that the price for same would be very attractive.

On motion, the Federal Siren Company was given permission to install a fire siren at the City Hall, purchase to be made subject to the approval of the board.

The following claims were allowed and ordered paid:

Puente Oil Co.	$ 7.70
J. W. Gould	2.00
E. C. Fairfield	12.92
Title Guarantee & Trust Co.	66.17
Pacific Light & Power Co.	206.72

No further business, the board adjourned.

THE RICHEST HOUR

A poor but honest friend of ours tells us there was one time in his life when he had everything in the world he wanted. It was about thirty years ago, and he was seated in a spring wagon with his wife by his side. They were on their way to their home in the country, and their furniture was in the wagon.

The pretty bundle of gingham would have been enough to make him perfectly happy, but when he thought of the furniture he felt that the world was too good to him. There was the No. 7 stove and three lovely joints of pipe and that stove and the pipe belonged to those two. Nobody else in the world had any claim on it. And there was the fine rocker for her and the fine straight chair for him. It is only in recent years that men have gotten into the habit of sitting in rocking chairs. Two or three other elegant pieces of furniture were in the wagon, and there was a 30-piece set of kitchen utensils—a big clothes boiler full of them. The boiler and the utensils it contained cost $1.50, but you couldn't get the same amount of tin today for double the money. Then there was the richly colored picture given them by the dealer who sold them the bill of furniture. Nowadays the dealers don't give you anything, but that dealer never failed to give one of these pictures to a couple when they bought their furniture from him. And last, but by no means least, was the beautiful green bowl and pitcher, a present from the boon companion of his single days, a young man who thought no more of a dollar than if it were so much trash.

"A penny saved is a penny earned," runs the old adage, and the present era of high prices gives the consumer an admirable opportunity to eliminate waste in the consumption of food products. As a whole the people of the United States are very wasteful. The battle against unreasonably high prices should include an effective campaign by each consumer against waste in all its forms.—New American Woman.

THIS HECKLER MAKES GOOD

"If any man here," shouted the temperance lecturer, "can name an honest business that has been helped by the saloon, I will spend the rest of my life working for the liquor people."

A man in the audience arose. "I consider my business honest," he said, "and it has been helped by the saloon."

"What is your business?" yelled the orator.

"I am an undertaker."

IN PULLMAN PARLANCE

A man who is constantly traveling over the same railroad has become well acquainted with the porters of the sleeping cars.

On a recent trip he hailed his porter exuberantly, and said:

"Hello, George! I have some good news for you. We've had a birth in our family since I saw you—twins."

George grinned. "Well, sah," he said, "I wouldn't call dat no birth, sah. Dat am a section, sah."

SOLDIERS OF THE SOIL LETTER BOX

Dear Readers:

On Monday I visited the headquarters of the L. A. Home Gardening Commission on Hill street and was courteously welcomed. Every person receiving free seeds signs the following statement: "Received from Los Angeles Home Gardening Committee the following seeds for a home garden for the use of myself and family. I agree to plant and to care for the same in the best possible manner, and after the crop is harvested I will report to the committee by postal card or letter what success I had with my garden and as nearly as possible the number of pounds of each variety raised."

This matter of keeping data in connection with home gardening is much to be commended. And reporting the results in a businesslike fashion gives the committee, the schools and the city valuable statistics. What a feather it would be in the cap of Glendale could we announce at the end of a year home gardening profits far in excess of any other city of similar size.

Let me advise you to plant wisely. Gardening is serious work. To feed the family first has become a patriotic duty; but in order to raise our foodstuffs successfully, we must make haste slowly. Be sure that the ground is thoroughly prepared, and do not attempt more than you can accomplish. It is far better to do a little and to do that little well, than to attempt a great deal and do it badly. I heard of an enthusiastic Glendale citizen who planted beans two months ago and planted them five inches deep. The beans have not yet appeared. Had they been planted 1½ inches deep, the heart of the owner would now be rejoicing. There is no shame in being an amateur; do not feel too proud to consult your expert neighbors. Yours for patriotic gardening.

EDITOR.

(Address all communications to Editor, Soldier of the Soil Letter Box, Glendale Evening News.)

Home Garden Irrigation

Two things should be remembered first about irrigation of home gardens. Potatoes, tomatoes, beans, peas and all kinds of vines and melons, squashes, cucumbers and canteloupes should never be watered by sprinkling nor in any way wetting the vines; while radishes, onions, lettuce, turnips, beets, carrots, cabbage, cauliflower and plants of that class are better so watered. You are not likely to water the latter too much and they will quickly show neglect in this respect.

Water may be run between the rows, and this method must of course be used with the first mentioned plants. In making the furrows for water, run them in such direction that the water will not run too fast; it should soak into the ground as thoroughly as possible. If the potato ground is soaked two feet deep before planting, and again two feet deep when the tubers are half grown, no other irrigation will be required on most soils. (L. A. Home Gardening.)

Exercise Your Muscle

Don't expect the plowman to turn the vacant lot into a plot ready for home garden purposes. He merely does the rough, preparatory work. Don't be afraid to use your own muscles. The more you spade the ground the better for yourself as well as for the garden. Pulverize the soil well, loosen it, irrigate it, and if you expect bountiful results don't fail to work in some good fertilizer. Well begun is half done, says an old proverb; so let the preparation be thorough.

Be Patriotic

Be patriotic. Wear a Soldier of the Soil Button. Ten cents each. Chamber of Commerce and elsewhere.

A Valiant Soldier of the Soil

Have you visited Murphy Park? Not yet? Never heard of the place? Why, it is right here in Glendale. Wm. J. Button, 1307 West First street, has one of the niftiest, most prosperous vegetable gardens to be seen anywhere. In February he began operations by planting potatoes at the back of his own vacant lot, and straightway the family dubbed it Murphy Park. Then he ventured on a few rows of corn, then beans. By this time he had entered thoroughly into the zest of gardening, and like a good sportsman took a chance on a few more rows of lettuce, Swiss chard, carrots, turnips, etc. To his joy, everything came up. His entire lot, 50 by 200, is now covered with delectable growing things; and the family revels in fresh, juicy vegetables. Mr. Button keeps an account of all moneys expended, seeds planted, irrigation, and of value received. We would be glad to hear from other such valiant Soldiers of the Soil.

"I say, old man, do you happen to have a five you are not using?"
"Why, yes; here you are."
"Thanks! But, I say, this looks like a counterfeit."
"It is. That's why I'm not using it."

TUJUNGA

Capt. Patrick J. Blake, president of the Monte Vista Valley Board of Trade, is now in active service in the quartermaster's department at Seattle. Capt. Blake served for thirty years in the U. S. army and was a staff sergeant when retired, or as high as he could get as a non-commissioned officer. Some months ago he was commissioned as captain in the reserves and although standing 153d in line, was selected as No. 20 for active duty, an evidence of the confidence reposed in him by the department.

More than 1500 autos passed a given point on Michigan avenue Sunday.

W. O. Trout dug three spuds this week that weighed one and a half pounds. We are giving H. C. L. some heavy blows.

Board of Trade

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Trade was held at Bolton Hall Monday night. The attendance was large. In the absence of the president, Dr. C. C. Buck was asked to preside.

The secretary spoke of the loss sustained by the absence of President Blake who, having been commissioned captain, is serving in the quartermaster department of the U. S. army. He also stated that the directors, because of his efficient service as president, had refused to accept his resignation. He read a notice of the hearing on the water question which is to be held at Los Angeles June 8 at 10 a. m. He further stated that there had been no personal feeling in asking for the hearing before the railroad commissioners and that he had asked the Western Empire corporation to join in a friendly hearing by joint petition, failing which the ex parte request had been made.

The question of state highway was considered and it was voted to have the secretary write in the name of the organization to the governor and to the state highway commission, asking them to build the Big Tujunga bridge out of the state funds, or failing that, to loan the money for it to the county for a long term.

The question of flood control was discussed and it was voted that the idea of the directors, that Haines canyon should be check dammed and a sufficient channel from the mouth of the canyon to the Verdugo Hills be constructed, be endorsed by the organization.

The secretary announced that a meeting would be held at Tujunga postoffice Monday, May 28, at 8 p.

m. to consider the formation of a rural credit association, and that all interested should attend. He spoke of the so-called liberty bond issue and the terms upon which they could be purchased. He also told of the government bulletin of official news published at Washington daily and sent to every postoffice. Also of the need of a good hotel in the village.

I. Schroommaker was presented for membership and he was unanimously elected.

A straw vote as to the question of annexation to Los Angeles resulted in 3 for and 23 against. At the conclusion of the meeting the people were addressed by M. V. Hartranft.

GROCERS DISCUSS FEEDING NATION AT WAR

TOLEDO, May 22.—Confronted with a food crisis, five thousand retail grocers from all parts of the United States met here yesterday for their national four-day convention to discuss the question of feeding a nation.

Not since the Civil War have retailers faced such grave problems of feeding a nation at war, with a food shortage on one hand and steadily soaring prices on the other, according to J. J. Ryan, secretary of the National Association of Retail Grocers.

One of the big questions for consideration will be a campaign of education aimed at those individuals who "lay in" an abnormal supply of food in anticipation of a rising market.

"We believe there is going to be a shortage of food if the war lasts any length of time, and the idea of some persons storing a great quantity of groceries while others are in want, is against our idea of patriotism," declared a Toledo grocer who will take a prominent part in the convention.

The grocers will seek a fairer treatment of the small grocer, who, because he buys in smaller quantities, is unable to compete with the larger grocer.

Retailers are to make a desperate effort to keep wholesalers from boosting prices, but admittedly they are working against heavy odds. Government contracts and a ready market abroad will compete with the retailers who wish to hold prices to the minimum. The grocers say people can not afford to pay higher prices. The retailers, if they are unable to hold wholesale prices down, will face the necessity of pushing prices higher steadily or quitting business, officials say.

Delegates from European countries who have usually attended, will not be present this year.

COMMEMORATE BATTLE WITH MONUMENT (By United Press)

LOOKOUT MOUNTAIN, Tenn., May 23.—The new monument erected by the state of Ohio commemorating the bravery of her sons who fought in the famous battle that took place here Nov. 24, 1863, was formally dedicated today.

The monument, in the form of a granite column located just below the summit of the mountain, is nearly 125 feet high.

Exercises were in charge of the Lookout Mountain memorial commission of Ohio, composed of soldiers of regiments which took part in the engagement. Members of the commission are Samuel H. Bolton, McComb, chairman; Charles W. Wheeler, Rossburg; Charles H. Grosvenor, Athens; Alfred E. May, Oberlin; Moses Hill, Morrow, and Benjamin Emery, London.

Governor James M. Cox was the principal speaker at the dedication. He attended with members of his military staff, including Adjutant General George H. Wood.

Eleven Ohio infantry regiments and one Ohio battery of light artillery fought in the battle. In the face of almost certain defeat, the Buckeye soldiers made their way up the mountain-side and finally were victorious.

The names of each organization and the commanders will be inscribed on tablets at the base of the monument.

NEW MYSTERY IN GERMAN PURCHASES

BERNE Switzerland, April 20 (By Mail)—The Swiss Government is curious to know why Germany wants huge quantities of Japanese crepe paper napkins. German agents throughout Switzerland have been placing orders for large quantities, paying for them in napkins of their own manufacture and money which alone equals the value of the Japanese variety. Whether this is some new Teutonic intrigue involving the Far East or whether the Japanese variety has been found valuable for manufacture of explosives is a problem which the Swiss secret service is working out.

No longer do patriotic Americans eat German fried potatoes, pretzels or pumpernickel. They eat "New England chips," "horseshoe doughnuts" and "Pittsburgh brown bread."

In some parts of Europe the potato is regarded with more respect than politics.

PICKING BRIDE FOR PRINCE OF WALES

LONDON, May 1 (By Mail)—English society has sidetracked most other activities for the serious business of picking a bride for the Prince of Wales. The Prince himself, somewhere in France, is wooing the fortune of war, probably unaware of the concern he is giving English society.

Society's cause for concern is the fear that the Prince may follow the precedent of preceding heirs to the throne and marry a foreign princess—even a German one, for which the precedent is very recent. And society—spelled with either a small or a capital "S" isn't going to stand for anything like that. "A British queen for the British" is becoming society's motto and it has passed from whispering tea-time circles to the bold publicity of the news paper editorial page. Conservatives and radicals alike are declaring it.

"So far as Britain is concerned the German royal matrimonial emporium henceforth is a bankrupt and discredited concern, and the marriageable members of our Royal Family will be pleased to look for consorts nearer home."

This is from Northcliffe's conservative Weekly Dispatch.

"We want no more foreigners in our Royal Family. It is not their fault, it is their misfortune, that they are pure German in blood, and that whenever and wherever a royal prince or princess is born it is pure German in blood. There is no British blood in our royal family. The remedy is obvious."

That from the more radical Evening Star.

"English opinion, at the present time, would rather see a British prince take his wife from the chorus or the gutter than from a German royal house. And that, of course, is not the alternative."

So chimes in the Manchester Dispatch.

These newspapers and others are urging revision of the Royal Marriages Act, whereby princes of the royal line are practically compelled to marry foreign princesses. The law was passed in 1772 as the result of George III's anger at two brothers who married English ladies of far from royal rank. It has had many awkward consequences, since outside of Germany nearly all reigning houses are Roman Catholic, with whom an alliance would be impossible for the head of the Church of England.

Without suckers to play it, the other fellow's game would be profitless.
